

BARCIE WAITE

Costume Designer

IATSE local 892 & 705

Barcie Waite loves designing clothing and costumes. Studying abroad in Europe had a huge impact and changed how she views life. Living in Italy Barcie got her degree in Art History from Middleberry College in Florence. However, it was her class in drapery making in Paris that made her enroll in design school. To this day, Barcie still loves sewing, fabrics, textures, jewelry and especially vintage clothing. She's been known to travel just to attend vintage and period clothing exhibitions. Barcie loves research and always strives for authenticity. She thoroughly enjoys the creativity her and working with raw elements, precious stones, and a never ending array of fabrics and styles. Barcie is based in Los Angeles and Santa Fe, NM.
