

CHRIS DUESTERDIEK, C.A.S.

Production Sound Mixer

Member of Television Academy, IATSE 891

One of the top Production Sound Mixers in Canada, Chris Duesterdiek has been recognized with 16 major awards and nominations. He was honored with both a BAFTA and Cinema Audio Society Award as well as an Academy Award nomination for his work on the highly acclaimed feature The Revenant. In addition to Alejandro G. Iñárritu, he has worked with an array of celebrated directors including Robert Zemeckis, Tim Burton, Chris Columbus, Robert Redford, Jason Reitman and Joon-Ho Bong. Chris has had sound running through his veins from an early age and at seventeen started his professional journey by working in radio. In his mid-twenties he moved to Vancouver and transitioned to film. In a career spanning over thirty five years, Chris has never shied away from complicated projects, whether the challenges were environmental or technical. His creative talents, proven team leadership and unique positive communication style have garnered the respect and appreciation of co-workers both above and below the line. In 2016 Chris was invited to be a member of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. Since then he has continued to add to the impressive roster of filmmakers and talent he has worked with. Based out of Vancouver, Chris is always happy to travel and has shot on locations around the world.
