IATSE local 600

Darin has worked as a cinematographer and camera operator making feature and documentary films for 20 years. He studied photography and cinematography at the Academy of Art in San Francisco and the Tisch School of the Arts at NYU. His style of photography is reflective of his experience working with filmmakers that value well-crafted, naturalistic images. As a camera operator he has had the privilege of collaborating with a wide spectrum of directors in cinema including Michael Mann, Terence Malick, Tony Scott, and Francis Lawrence. He has won a Cinematographer's Guild Showcase Award of Excellence for the short film Ola's Box of Clovers, and was nominated for an Emmy Award for his collaborative camerawork with Dion Beebe on a special film for Tony Bennett. In his free time he is an avid surfer and still photographer.
