

DAN RINGEY

First Assistant Director/Stage Manager

Directors Guild of America

Born and raised in Los Angeles, DGA 1st Assistant Director Dan Ringey grew up acting and making short films with his friends and brother Charles. In college, Dan studied theatre and film theory and quickly learned his interests leaned toward directing for film and television. With the mind set of "the best place to learn is on set", Dan interned for different production companies. Later, working as Production Assistant, Dan met his mentor Neil Kinsella (Pee Wee's Playhouse, Land of The Lost, Tales From The Darkside) who introduced Dan to the position of Assistant Director and showed him the ropes of what is involved and the distinct skill set necessary to excel. Dan worked his way up the ladder to become a steadily working Directors Guild of America Assistant Director today. Dan is based in Los Angeles but always happy to travel for work.
