IATSE local #706

Gina Homan's twenty-five plus years in Hollywood's entertainment make-up industry includes Television and Features, comedies and drama. Born in Southern California, Gina relocated and grew up mostly in the Dallas, Texas area. After working on a student film, her interest grew and led to small independent movies and some Commercials. Numerous Telefilms followed which led to bigger Features and into Episodic Television. Firmly established and loved by her actors, Gina enjoys being part of the collaborative process, finding it inspiring to work with so many creative people, each with such unique talents and watching it all come together. Gina enjoys all aspects of her profession and loves jobs which challenge her. For example, she excels with straight, beauty, special effects and period makeup. Gina likes a professional Hair and Make-up department and has strong support by talented make-up artists that are hard working and grateful to be there who love their jobs as much as Gina does. Gina is based in Los Angeles and available to travel.
