

JILLIAN AMBURGEY

Digital Script Supervisor

IATSE local #161

Script Supervisor Jillian Amburgey has over thirty years in the business extending over East and West Coasts and internationally. Jillian is creator of Zen Continuity, a digital scripting program which shows sustaining power and a tough relevancy in a challenging new area of digital. Jillian traveled the world extensively by 15 and has her Graduate Degree from U of Florida, with a Minor in TV-Film. She got her start in the business Script Supervising for Music Videos and Commercials. Jillian relocated from Los Angeles to Florida to work at Universal Studios and Disney/MGM Studios. She later followed the incentive programs to Los Angeles, North Carolina, New Orleans, Europe and Vancouver before settling in to Atlanta in 2010. Jillian believes in giving back by educating an iATSE intern yearly, taught at Full Sail Film School and UCF, and retains a Lecture position at The Maine Media Workshop and Western Carolina University teaching Script Continuity Advantages To Directing and her program Zen Continuity. Jillian has one of the best work ethics in the business. She is calm, focused, efficient, quiet yet confident to speak up when needed and a pleasure to work with. Atlanta based with her champion Golden Retrievers, Jillian is always happy to travel for work.
