

KEITH HALL

Makeup Artist /Dept. Head

IATSE local #706

Native Californian Keith Hall started practicing makeup on his friends at the age of eleven after seeing The Exorcist at a drive in theatre. Also a musician since the age of thirteen, Keith started playing in bands at age sixteen. As a drummer Keith toured for a number of rock bands in the early 1980's. On tour, Keith would do the stage makeup for the members of his bands. Shortly afterward, he left college early to pursue formal training in makeup artistry. After receiving diplomas in beauty, character and special effects makeup, Keith's career started. Now, having worked all over the world on over sixty features and television series with over forty of them as Department Head Makeup or Key Makeup, Keith continues doing what he loves. His full eight season run on the acclaimed Showtime series Dexter has been filled with exceptional, diverse, complicated and often gruesome prosthetics. Keith prides himself on running professional and drama free Makeup departments that can accommodate any budget. Keith is based in Los Angeles and available to travel.
