Member, IATSE 695

Utilizing top of the line equipment and well-seasoned instincts to foresee and quickly resolve challenges, Sean Rush is a versatile mixer who delivers exceptional sound quality. His genuine and personable approach with cast and crew makes him a favorite to work with season after season. Producers love him because his work seldom requires any looping, even in difficult exteriors. As a second-generation mixer with multiple nominations, Rush has the experience, work ethic and energy to bring you unparalleled sound whether in a studio or on the busiest location. Based in Los Angeles, Sean has also worked several seasons in Hawaii where his family joins him.
