

WHIT NORRIS, C.A.S.

Production Sound Mixer

Member, IATSE 695 & 479

In Whit Norris' over thirty years as Production Sound Mixer, he has worked on over eighty Features and Television shows as well as Commercials. Born in Birmingham, Alabama, Whit started working in broadcasting at WJSR and WVOK while attending the University of Alabama at Birmingham. Soon after, Airmobile Productions recruited Whit to work on Commercials and Industrials. After two years, Whit moved to New York to manage a large film restoration project for Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus before Sound Mixing consumed him. Now residing in Atlanta since 1987, Whit has experienced the Sound industry shift from recoding on analog tape to now recording on digital recorders. Whit is always current with the latest sound technology. Whit is available to work anywhere and enjoys stage and location shooting.
