Directors Guild of America

Warren Ostergard has worked on over thirty feature films in various Producer capacities. He is a Line Producer and an established DGA Unit Production Manager and well versed in film finance structures. He has managed film production, supervised Post-Production and film delivery and has overseen the tax credit audit and submission process on dozens of films. He has worked closely with Film offices in many different states and countries and has solid ties with top tier Sales Agents, Directors and Department Heads. These invaluable qualities have made Warren into one of the most prolific Independent Producers in the film business.
